

Win an autographed copy of THE LIBRARY BOOK!

Coming this October, The Library Book uses the lyrics to Tom Chapin and Michael Mark's "The Library Song" to celebrate the magic of reading and of libraries, because what's the best way to cure a gloomy day? A trip to the library, of course!

This affectionate, exuberant, uproarious celebration of books, reading, and—SHHH!—libraries will please readers young and old. The Booklist starred review promises it will be “fun for story hours and satisfying for reading one-on-one.”

Because this book was inspired by books in a library, Simon & Schuster is raffling five AUTOGRAPHED copies of The Library Book to librarians!

To enter, email your name, library name, and mailing address to CATS@baker-taylor.com with “LIBRARY” in the subject line by September 15th. Winners will be randomly selected and announced in the October 2017 CATS Meow.

Preorders are now being taken on TitleSource360 for The Library Book, ISBN 9781481460927. Be sure to reserve yours.

We'll leave you with this link to an amateur video to accompany the song. WARNING! You may not come away without singing “I’m going down to the library!” for the rest of the day.

GOOD LUCK!
