Book Club Plans

Automatically Yours™ from Baker & Taylor is a Specialized Collection Program that delivers the latest publications from popular authors right to your door, automatically. Automatically Yours offers a variety of plans to meet your library's needs including: Popular Adult Fiction Authors, B&T Kids, Spokenword Audio, Graphic Novels and Popular Book Clubs.

Automatically Yours offers three different Book Club Plans to help your library meet your patrons' demands for the titles selected by these popular book clubs. Choose the plans that are right for your library and we'll do the rest. No more placing separate orders, no worrying about title availability - they'll arrive on time at your library.

If you wish, you can receive your titles with cataloging and processing. If you already have a cataloging and processing profile with Baker & Taylor, just indicate your preferences on the form. Please note that Spokenword Audio titles are only available with Technical Processing.

A new feature of the Automatically Yours program is updated lists of forthcoming titles available on our website, www.btol.com. Click on the Public Tab, then choose Automatic Shipments and Automatically Yours to view the current lists.

Sign-up today! Simply complete the Account Information Form, indicate the number of copies you require and the desired format (when available) and return it to Baker & Taylor. It's that simple!

“Today” Show Book Club

Automatically Yours offers each title selected by the “Today” Show's Book Club on a standing order basis. The “Today” show features a monthly, half-hour segment anchored by both Katie Couric and Matt Lauer that airs at 8:30 am EST. Well-known writers are invited on the show to recommend book club selections from less well-known writers. Each time a selection is announced, Baker & Taylor will automatically supply you with the title.

Reading With Ripa Book Club

Billed as fun, frivolous, fast and fiction, Kelly Ripa's book club is a departure from books with deep, meaningful messages and instead highlights titles that are light, frivolous and fun! Each time Kelly Ripa makes a selection on “LIVE with Regis and Kelly” we will automatically supply you with the title.

“Good Morning America” Book Club

Once a month, “Good Morning America” invites different book clubs from around the country on the show to discuss their own selections in a segment called “Read This.” The featured book club also recommends new titles for the following month's selection. Each time a selection is announced, Baker & Taylor will automatically supply your library with the title.

Oprah's Book Club

Although Oprah has discontinued her book club, she has said she will occasionally recommend titles if she feels that they have merit. Baker & Taylor will continue to automatically ship any title that Oprah recommends in the future.
